RENO, Nev. (June 25, 2008) – Now golf fans can add PGA TOUR tickets to the grocery list as Scolari's Food & Drug Company stores in northern Nevada take to selling tickets for the 10th annual Legends at Sparks Marina Reno-Tahoe Open. The stores are selling good any day tickets and season passes to the event, held July 28 – Aug. 3 at Montréux Golf & Country Club, for $15 and $60, respectively, through July 27. Tickets are also available for purchase online at LegendsRenoTahoeOpen.com.

"We're very pleased that Scolari's has agreed to sell Legends Reno-Tahoe Open tickets this year," said John Sande III, chairman of the Reno-Tahoe Open Foundation. "This partnership helps make the tournament available to a much wider audience than in previous years, and it also serves as a reminder that the tournament is quickly approaching, providing individuals and families with the opportunity to enjoy a fun-filled week of PGA action and other entertaining activities and events at Montréux."

Now in its 10th year, the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open has added a whole new lineup of activities to the schedule July 28-Aug. 3, including 18th Hole Après Golf entertainment, a "Taste of Reno" on Hole 17, the 16th Hole "Fiesta Loco," the "Kidz Par-Tee Zone" and the "Get Fit Fore Charity" walk. In addition to top notch PGA golf, returning for another go-round on the course at Montréux are the Vino 100 Wine Walk and exclusive Montréux home tours.

"Scolari's is proud to be part of the 2008 Legends Reno-Tahoe Open," said Ward Dunn, vice president of sales and marketing for Scolari's Food & Drug Company. "This is a very exciting time in the life of this tournament and we're happy to partner with the event to help it achieve further success as it continues on in its mission to give back to the northern Nevada community."
